The Australian Government has agreed a military pact with the USA and UK which positions Australia in a forward defence posture against China. It will also cost us initially, at least $550B to purchase nuclear submarines and other weapons. Opposition is building to AUKUS. Our speakers explain why.

Margaret Reynolds AC

Tammy Franks MLC

Margaret had a sixteen-year career in the Senate, including a term as a Minister in the Hawke Government. She represented Australia at the United Nations and worked with international human rights and peace organisations. She was recently invested with the AC for 'eminent service to the people and Parliament of Australia, to social justice, gender equality and Indigenous rights, to local government, and to the community'.

Tammy is a Greens member of the South Australian Legislative Council. She has worked in various human rights, women's organisations and the community sector including as Co-ordinator for Amnesty International Australia. A 'Tampa Green', she was SA Party Convener for two years. Her current portfolios include Peace and Disarmament, one of The Greens 'four pillars'.
